

April 8, 2025

Dear Valued Customer,

We are writing to remind you of a recent change regarding the distribution of Aspen Medical Products. As of April 7, 2025, Breg, Inc. ("Breg") is no longer an authorized distributor of Aspen products. This letter is to inform you of options to ensure continuity in purchasing Aspen products and maintain sufficient inventory within your practice.

To procure Aspen products:

1. You may purchase products directly from Aspen Medical Products. Your local Sales Representative will assist in setting up an account and provide further information such as part numbers and pricing.
2. Our strong supply chain and robust inventory ensure consistent product availability and reliable fulfillment for our customers. With strategic planning and efficient logistics, we are well-equipped to meet demand while maintaining the highest standards of quality and service. Please note, no products are on backorder despite what you may have heard in the marketplace.
3. You can purchase products directly from any authorized distributors who have access to Aspen's portfolio and can assist you with the ordering process. Please note you will need to use the Aspen part numbers to ensure you are ordering authentic Aspen products. Click here to access the part number cross reference.
4. To the extent that Breg retains Aspen inventory, they may continue selling these items for up to for a limited period following the contract end date.

Aspen is continually committed to delivering products that lead the market in quality and patient care. Trusted by 75% of Level I & II trauma centers across the US, each product is clinically proven to provide the appropriate motion restriction and pressure to ensure positive patient outcomes and consistent care.

We are dedicated to providing an exceptional customer experience and innovative solutions to meet your needs. If you have any questions or require additional support regarding your business or Aspen products, please do not hesitate to reach out to your Aspen representative or contact customer service at service@aspemp.com.

Thank you for your continued partnership.

Sincerely,

Jim Cloar
